A Yoakum Tragedy.

Another killing took place at Yoakum last Friday evening about 9 o'clock. Mr. C. W. Rankin, a restaurant keeper and Mr. J. L. Pickens, a travelling auditor of the Aransas Pass road, met on the depot platform and after passing some words, drew their knives and began a duel, which resulted in the death of C. W. Rankin. Mr. Rankin's throat was cut in a fearful manner; all the blood vessels and the jugular veins were severed. Rankin died in ten minutes after being cut.

Pickens was cut four times; once on the muscles of each arm, on the right breast and about the collar bone. The wound on the breast is nearly two inches deep and from two to three inches in length. Pickens' wounds are quite serious, but not necessarily fatal. The fight took place but a few feet from a large number of people waiting on the depot platform. Pickens was arrested by City Marshal Criswell and taken to Hallettsville by Deputy Sheriff R. E. Burkett. He was allowed bail in the sum of $2,500 and was then taken to San Antonio and placed in the railroad hospital. His examining trial was set for yesterday, Tuesday.

Most people become puzzled when wanting to buy a good spring remedy as so many blood remedies are advertised. Think a minute. Sarsaparilla is good for the blood; celery is good for the nerves; if these two are combined with remedies to promote digestion you will have a remedy several times more effective than any sarsaparilla. Gatlin's Sarsaparilla Celery Tonic combines all the above in a perfect manner. Hence, you get more value for your money than with any other remedy.
